Monthly Events

April 7th 2020 meeting is cancelled due to the Coronavirus scare. See the presidents report for more information. City of Tucson says that Donna Liggins Rec Center is closed until June to groups larger than 10 people. I thought of renting Ellie Towne for the May meeting but Pima County can't give an answer at to when they will lift restrictions. Depending on the circumstances we may have the May Membership Meeting at the campsite near Arivaca the day the outing is scheduled, perhaps spend the money usually spent on rent for burgers and hotdogs. You will be notified by e-mail and post card when we find out what's going on so please send your updated contact info to dgdmembership@gmail.com

Membership Meeting

1st TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH @ 6:00PM

Donna Liggins Community Center
2160 N. 6th Avenue
TUCSON AZ 85705

If you have any questions please call: David Salars @ 520-490-4154

More centrally located, we're hoping this new location will be a relief from the traffic congestion that will soon result from the 2 year closure of the Ruthrauff/Camino Del Cerro exit on I-10.

Along with the planned convenience the club will be saving $45 a month as the city's rates for meeting space are remarkable lower than those of Pima County. The new meeting space in a precinct polling location so on the week of the election meetings will be held on Wednesdays.

The President's Corner

In light of the threat of the Coronavirus the decision has been made to cancel Aprils Membership meeting at Donna Liggins Rec. Center. This decision has been made with great regrets as it is known how many people look forward to the meeting. These meetings are a time when the club brings in a good deal of revenue through the sale of raffle tickets, store sales and membership payments so please be sure to buy extra raffle tickets at the next meeting we are hoping to hold at Donna Liggins on May 5th. One of the reasons for this move is the fact that the representatives from City of Tucson Parks and Rec didn't return my messages.

The outing is not cancelled for Saturday April 11th to Placer Pond (rather than Easter Sunday April 12th). I feel that in the open space and fresh air the threat of the disease should be nominal, use your best judgement as whether or not you should personally attend. The group will leave from the usual meeting place at the Greaterville turnoff on State Highway 83 (Sonoita Highway) at 8:00AM.

For those whose membership is due please mail it with your member number to Desert Gold Diggers
P.O. Box 5215
Tucson, AZ 85703

If you are going out on your own please be sure to be mindful of the heat that is on its way and take plenty of water for you and your vehicle. May the bottom of your pan turn yellow.

Thanks for all the help with the March Overnight Outing

Due to the Coronavirus scare, the Family Picnic/Overnight outing was smaller than usual but according to Dan Walker's outing report it was a huge success. This success is due to people who gave their selfless efforts setting up tables, cooking, directing the common dig and all the duties that go into an event like this.

Regrettably due to my on call schedule my time there was limited, I enjoyed November's Steak Fry and last year's Family Picnic so much I was disappointed on not being there the full time.

The membership should thank the people who are helping out at these events, I give each of them my thanks at this time but am reluctant to name any as I may forget some. It's members like this who stand as a great example of what all the members should be doing in support of THEIR CLUB.

GOLD PROSPECTING BASICS

Internet Mining Claim Research

With the growth of the internet the process of who owns which mining claim, what areas are unclaimed and which government jurisdiction controls the land that is desirable for prospecting much more efficient. It has become so efficient that it can usually be done in less time than it takes to travel to and from the government office we would traditionally visit during claim and property research.

The LR2000 system is the Bureau of Land Managements (BLM) searchable database for public reports on federal land and mineral use authorizations, conveyances, mining claims, withdrawals and classifications. This website enables users to access the same information over the Internet as in the BLM State Office Information Access Centers.

As prospectors we are interested in mining claim recordation which contains information on unpatented mining claims located on federal lands including claimant name, approximate location, and other applicable information. Mineral patents are not contained in Mining Claim Recordation. Claims marked active are currently held by a person or group with all the proper paperwork filed and all fees paid by the required date. Those marked "case closed" are open to have a mining claim placed over the area described.

To access claim information enter the address: <https://reports.blm.gov/reports.cfm?application=LR2000> which will take you to the Land and Mineral System Reports. Scroll down to Public Mining Claims Reports. You will see a number of search options, probably the most important are claim name/number index, customer info(claim holder), geo index and geo report. When you click and open one of the search options a group of values must be entered, The system will not accept any entries that are not made in capital letters. Examples on entering Median, township rang and sections coordinates are shown above the value categories that need to be filled in if the Geo report option or geo Index option are being used. The meridian codes for each state are as follows: AZ-4, CA-15, CO-06, ES(eastern states)-05, ID-08, MT-07, NM-23, NV-21, OR-33, UT- 26 and WY-06.

The Diggings.com is very user friendly. A name of claim name, the owners name or mine name can be entered into the search window and all the information involved with any of those names may be accessed from there. This information includes mineral types, ownership, years of production claims status etc. even some general geological information can be found in the reports on the individual claims. The information provided sometimes exceeds that found in LR2000 but as far as the claim status and location of the claim LR2000 is most up to date.

Western Mining History is an online resource that show lots of historic information in regards to mining towns and mines with the use of maps that are easy to navigate. The maps can be increased or decreased in size by scrolling with the mouse wheel and has a grab/drag feature to change places on the map. When a map is opened red dots will be seen denoting mining towns and black dots will appear denoting mines. By right clicking on the black dots the Mines name, state, county and the mineral of interest is displayed, clicking on the name of the mine opens information about the mine. Clicking on a red dot displays the towns name state, county and status, clicking on the town name will show an interesting history of the town. Several of the features are only available with a membership at the cost of $29.

Every county has an website for their assessor's office in which ownership of property can be found.

New meeting location for Desert Gold Diggers

Beginning with the membership meeting of February 4, 2020 the meeting will be held at 2160 N. 6th Avenue in Tucson at the Donna R. Liggins Recreation Center. It is located 2 blocks east of Stone Ave. just south of Grant Road. The meeting time will remain the same.

This move will give the club a savings of $540 a year on fees to Pima County Parks Department. The director of Ellie Towne Community Center also re-ports that a renovation will soon be taking place and the facility closed for an undetermined amount of time.

It is a nice spacious facility with lots of parking and it is centrally located for easier access for especially with the upcoming closure of the Ruthrauff Road exit off of I-10.

March 7th, 2020 membership meeting is cancelled due to Coronavirus.

The status for May's meeting is yet to be determined.

Southwest Mining Towns: Paradise , AZ

Paradise Arizona in Cochise County sits about 5 miles west of Portal in the Chiricahua Mountains. Though prospecting began in the 1880's the town itself wasn't established until 1901, it's post office being established October 23rd. The town grew out of development work by the Chiricahua development company based out of Michigan. A double compartment shaft was sunk between 1901 and 1903 to mine a copper ore body that proved unprofitable. The company abandoned the project in 1905. Other mines in the area that operated after the demise of Chiricahua Developments project were the Leadville Group, the Columbia Mine and the Martin Claims. Some of them operated into the 1950's

The original jail was open air consisting of a chain stretched between 2 trees to which the prisoners were shackled, they were often chained to one of the trees. The need for enforcement was great as there were 13 saloons in the town.

Many of the houses in the town were moved in from Galeyville which met its demise in 1882. In June 2011, there were five permanent residents and 29 standing structures when the Horseshoe 2 Fire swept through the area.

Book Review:

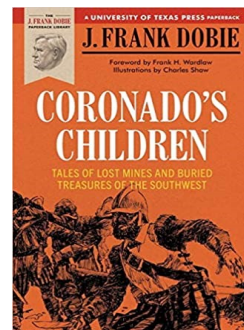

Coronado's Children: Tales of Lost Mines and Buried Treasures of the Southwest

Even though none of the stories include Southern Arizona the writing of Frank Dobie is always interesting and engaging. Being written in the 1930's some of the stories include 1st hand accounts of the happenings during the search for the mines and lost treasures before the turn of the century.

It is helpful to have a road atlas nearby or access to Google Earth so as you read a better idea can be gained about the area being described. Dobie gives good descriptions of the areas of which he wrote and in many cases gives different renditions of the same legend.

I found the last chapter a bit disconnected unlike the previous chapters. The entire book was enjoyable however, whether using the book as a guide to one of the mines or treasures or just to spark they fancy of daydreams.

Please let me know of any books you would like reviewed or Submit a review of your own that pertain to prospecting mining or the hunt for treasure.

OUTING DIRECTORS REPORT

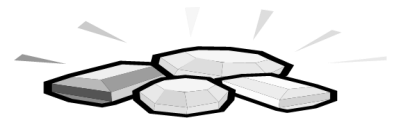

Stevens Shadow Claims February 9 2020

On Sunday February 9 2020 at 8:00 AM we met at "A" rock for our monthly outing. We had 17 members and 1 guest from Alabama in attendance. The metal detecting hunt had a twist to it, I planted 20 old buffalo nickels and 4 liberty head V nickels, the buffalo nickels were worth a dollar coin and the liberty head V nickels were worth a gold nugget. All the targets were found.

After the detector hunt most of us went to metal detect on the old mine dumps, we found a lot of copper minerals. Martin told us what the minerals were and there mineral content. He also explained what minerals were associated with the formation of gold. Later in the day a few members prospected for gold the old fashion way.

I believe every one a had good time and the outing had a good turnout. Getting out and experiencing the out of doors is a great way to spend a day with friends. Until next time keep finding that yellow metal.

Your outing director Dan

Hope Claims Outing March 7 2020

The March Outing was a 3 day event to the Hope 1 and Hope 2 claims. On Friday night there was a chili cook off, Saturday was the day we had our common dig with 45 members getting a share of the gold. We found some good gold on the claims and even the children were having fun playing in the mud. We worked on the claim until approximately 10:30 AM then headed back to the campground.

While we were working the claim those that stayed back helped with potluck lunch which consisted of hot dogs, hamburgers, potato chips, salads and deserts. All the food was wonderful and the weather was great. After lunch some of the members went back to the claims.

We owe the success of the outing to the members of the board and all those people in the background who helped make this a successful outing. Until next month keep digging.

Your outing director Dan.

Dan Walker

May 1, 1933 President Roosevelt enacted Executive Order 6102 requiring all persons to turn over all but a very small amount of gold coin, bullion and certificates in exchange for $20.67/Troy oz. He used the obsolete law of 1917 Trading With The Enemy's Act as justification. Violations were punishable with a $10,000 fine and up to 10 years in prison.

GOLD RUSH NUGGET BUCKET RAFFLE

While liquidating some equipment David and Maria Hansen gave the club a good deal on a Gold Rush Nugget Bucket which we are now raffling off. The companies website bills it as: "The Gold Rush Nugget Bucket offers a breakthrough design for a gold panning kit! All the equipment you need to find gold, as well as gems, cool rocks and artifacts, is neatly organized inside."

This patented kit concentrates the smallest of gold particles, gold dust, into a small bowl. When ready, simply take the bowl out and dump it into the gold pan that comes included and start the gold panning process! The process is made to be easy: scoop in dirt, pour in water and let gravity do all the work!"

PROPERTIES OF GOLD

There are polymers of gold that efficiently scatter or absorb most forms of radiation, including X-rays. Chemically incorporated into these polymers, gold is less poisonous than other heavy metals that also block radiation.

NASA incorporated gold into the face shields of the helmets used by Apollo Astronauts to protect them from the solar radiation traveling uninhibited through space.

In the early 70's the Ford Motor Company produced an option in the Thunderbird sports cars to block the glare. It contained gold incorporated into the glass and used an electric current to change the polarity of the glass as needed.
